- (iv) The Bowls WA Game Development Committee reserves the right to call a General Abandonment in circumstances where lead up and ongoing conditions are considered extreme e.g., Multiple extreme weather days in a row (heatwave).

14.2 Individual Club Abandonment/Interrupted Games

If the temperature is less than 38°C at the start of play, the Umpire of the Day should check the temperature periodically to determine if the following instructions are required.

- (i) To be read in conjunction with Metropolitan Pennant Competition General Conditions of Play
- (ii) If a game has commenced and the temperature reaches 38°C or above, these procedures apply even if enough ends have been completed to constitute a game.
- (iii) Should the temperature reach 38°C at the start of play or during play, then the umpire of the day is to refer to 14.3 in these conditions of play.
- (iv) Should the temperature reach 40°C at the start of play or during play, then the umpire of the day is to refer to 14.4 in these conditions of play.
- (v) If play is still in progress at 2.30pm (Tuesday) all ends in play shall be completed. A count of completed ends should be made to determine if the required number of ends to constitute a game have been completed.
- (vi) If insufficient ends have been completed refer to Metropolitan Pennant Competition General Conditions.

14.3 Umpire of The Day Procedures when the Temperature has reached 38°C but not exceeded 40°C

If the temperature has reached 38°C but not exceeded 40°C at the designated rollup time, players will commence the roll up and start the game as scheduled. The following procedures will apply after 30 minutes of play, not including the rollup.

- (i) After commencement of play, when the temperature is 38°C or above, the Umpire of the Day shall call the players off the green at the completion of each rinks current end for a designated 10-minute rest period. The rest period will not begin until the last rink has left all greens in use at the venue. If a dead end occurs, players will still leave the green.
- (ii) The Umpire of the Day is not required to check the temperature until after 30 minutes have taken place OR they feel the temperature may have risen to 40°C or above (see 14.4)
- (iii) After 10 minutes, play will recommence for a further 30 minutes.

MEN'S SATURDAY & MIDWEEK PENNANT COMPETITION CONDITIONS OF PLAY
